WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS

If you are a visitor to All Saints, we want you to know how welcome you are-whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or from another parish here in the Diocese of Dallas. Thank you for praying with us. Thank you also for your generosity, which helps us to celebrate All Saint's liturgies here in a fitting and beautiful way, and to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the Dallas area. Enjoy your visit and know that you always have a home here at All Saints Catholic Church!

PARISH REGISTRATION

If you have made the decision to join us and make All Saints your permanent home, we welcome you and invite you to register online at www.allsaintsdallas.org/registration. Registration forms are also available all the time at the Newcomer's Desk in the Welcome Center or in the Church Office during the week.

OUR VISION

We gather as the Body of Christ: to grow in our faith, to serve, to share.

OUR MISSION

We the faith community of All Saints, united in God's family through our Catholic tradition, gather to bear witness to the teachings of Jesus Christ and share His eternal mission. We come together for communal worship, education in faith, spiritual growth and fellowship.

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we reach out as Christ's hands to spread God's love, healing and forgiveness. We are committed to our tradition of hospitality, diversity and tolerance. We invite all to use their time, talent and treasure to make present the kingdom of God.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. ALFONSE...

I find it interesting how a scholar of the Law asked Jesus what he must do to inherit the Kingdom of Heaven. I find it refreshing what the Lord said: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depends all the law and the prophets." What does it mean to love someone? Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI wrote in his book "What It Means to be a Christian": Being a Christian means having love. That is unbelievably difficult and, at the same time, incredibly simple." It is difficult because most of us have not yet experienced the Copernican revolution; that is, we still think and act as if everyone revolves around me - that I am at the center of the Universe - that all things and people should be serving and loving and honoring me. Well, it's not going to happen, and it's not going to happen because the world was not made that way. Face it: the world and life revolves around the Son. That, my dear friends, is the honest truth. Have you come to terms with this reality? Of course this does not sound very appealing (or even loving) to any of us. It's hard to admit this, but this is simply due to our fallen nature. Sin has distorted everyone and everything. But the irony of it all is how Christ resolves the problem. He takes a dip for us as well. When God became man He fell. When He stepped down from heaven He scratched His name off the top of the list. When He became a simple man He left most of

His Light back home. And when He preached to simple folks He kept a safe distance from the top brass of humanity. It was only when He ate at the homes of sinners and forgave their sins that the light of darkness began to shine on Him. "Who does this man think he is? Who is this that forgives sinners???" For those in power, it was at this moment that "He" became "he." Why did the Lord waste His time and life on simple people? Were they better than others? Of course not. Then why did He help them? Because the Lord knows how to love. The Lord does not love us because we are good, or because we can do something for Him, or because He can get something out of us. The Lord loves us because He is good. So simple and profound. To be a Christian means to be another Christ. To be a Christian means to put God in your heart, in your soul and in your mind. It means to think like Christ, speak like Christ, move like Christ, live like Christ. To be a Christian literally means to be another Christ. And what exactly did Christ do that our neighbor finds so difficult to do? Love unconditionally. And what does it mean to love someone unconditionally? It means to give and forgive. Forgive like no other. What does it mean to be a Christian? It means to forgive like no other - to forgive the unforgiveable. It means to forgive like it's nobody's business. Wow! Of all the major religions in the world, no religion speaks more loudly or forcefully or convincingly about the need to forgive than Christianity. Forgiveness is at the top of Christ's list of things to do. It is in His heart, mind, soul, body and blood. It is on Christ's lips ALL THE TIME! Forgiveness is all about giving life to the dead. It is the most powerful tool Christians have at their disposal to cast out Satan (and others) from the center of our world and replace them with Christ and our neighbor.

BUILDING STRONG FOUNDATIONS (K-3)

Our elementary grades have a strong emphasis on authentic literacy (reading, writing, discussion) and basic math principles. Your student will be surrounded by kind and loving teachers who encourage and support them in achieving their God-given potential. Teachers work together with parents to help students develop organizational skills and independence in school work. Daily instruction and activities give students the opportunity to ask questions, make mistakes, and become a confident young person. Throughout the school day, your child will participate in prayer, understand how to treat others, and learn how to be a shining example of Christ's love.

Elementary school students begin the day with prayer at 7:45 am, continue with eight class periods throughout the day, then end the day in prayer at 3:15 pm. Students have four periods before lunch and recess, then have an additional four periods after lunch. Elementary grades are self-contained classrooms, and students only change classes for P.E., art, music, and library time. Each grade engages in instruction in mathematics, English language arts (spelling, grammar, reading, writing, vocabulary), science, social studies, and religion every day.

STEWARDSHIP / GIVING

What Happens if Someone Drops a Consecrated Host?

Answer:

Despite our best efforts, and this is as true in our liturgical celebrations as in all of life, accidents happen. Occasionally at Mass, a host may be dropped or some of the Precious Blood could even be spilled from the chalice, despite the best efforts of the priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of holy Communion assisting at the liturgy.

So, when a host is dropped or the Precious Blood is spilled, we can take guidance from the U.S. Bishops' statement Norms for the Distribution for Holy Communion Under Both Kinds:

All ministers of Holy Communion should show the greatest reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist by their demeanor, their attire, and the manner in which they handle the consecrated bread or wine. Should there be any mishap — as when, for example, the consecrated wine is spilled from the chalice — then the affected "area . . . should be washed with water, and this water should be then poured into the sacrarium."

According to no. 280 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the general rule is that a dropped host is picked up by the minister distributing Communion and reverently consumed. The minister should be careful to make sure that no other particles from the host remain on the ground. As we see in the instruction from the bishops, the Precious Blood would be absorbed (customarily with a purificator) and the area attentively and reverently washed with water which would then be disposed of properly.
