THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. - Mt 2:10-11a

OUR VISION

We gather as the Body of Christ: to grow in our faith, to serve, to share.

OUR MISSION

We the faith community of All Saints, united in God's family through our Catholic tradition, gather to bear witness to the teachings of Jesus Christ and share His eternal mission. We come together for communal worship, education in faith, spiritual growth and fellowship. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we reach out as Christ's hands to spread God's love, healing and forgiveness. We are committed to our tradition of hospitality, diversity and tolerance. We invite all to use their time, talent and treasure to make present the kingdom of God.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. ALFONSE...

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." Why were they looking? There is a lot to meditate on in today's Gospel passage. Three wise men were following a star. But why were they looking? Why were they even searching? I think it is because they were restless; something or someone was missing in their lives, that ah ha moment.

We tend to think wealthy people have it made. Believe me, they don't. We tend to think poor people are miserable. Believe me, they aren't. For these two reasons, the crèche is the ideal place to meditate and contemplate on these misconceptions and correct our superficial impressions.

The wise men had their eyes fixed on the heavens because they were looking for meaning on earth. What's this world all about? For them, it wasn't unreasonable to believe in a higher being, and one that would want to reveal himself to them. It was just a matter of time and keeping their heart, mind and eyes open. So when these men saw an amazing scene, they immediately set their hearts and minds to finding the person behind it. Was this their ah ha moment? Not yet.

Something about that star. We would like to believe the wise men were astronomers. I tend to think they were more like philosophers or poets or even storm chasers. They were adventurers. They were dreamers. They were star chasers. The star may have inspired them, but I believe they were already inspired well before they ever saw the star. The star simply gave them an excuse to get moving. It clinched a hunch they had. So they journeyed to get to the bottom of it. Where they surprised it led them to a manger? I think so. Was this their ah ha moment? I believe so.

What's below that star. The wise men followed a star. What I find most appealing about them is that they weren't interested in catching it and bringing it home. Herod was. Herod wanted to catch the star (the child) and bring it back home to destroy it. I think many of us would love to catch Christ's star and bring it back home with us and have it settle above us! This takes a lot of pride and a lot of arrogance. The wise men were amazing. Their encounter with the child Jesus changed their lives. In fact, they even journeyed back home a different way. This takes humility. It takes a lot of courage as well. Was this their ah ha moment as well? You bet.

The Cave. The wise men traveled a great distance and found themselves inside a cave, adoring a child and kneeling before his mother and father. They had never imagined a star tied to a manger, the divine and human being one, a child being the Son of God, royalty mixed in with poverty, and strength flowing through humility. Was this an ah ha moment? Oh yeah. It was an epiphany!

RECYCLING SERVICES DISCONTINUED ON CAMPUS

It is with much regret we must inform you we are unable to provide recycling services through our parish recycling dumpster on our church campus. Due to global changes in the recycling markets there is very little demand or market for recyclables. The facility previously taking our recyclables has stopped accepting material. Without a place to dispose of recyclables we can no longer collect them. We appreciate your interest and eagerness in continuing to recycle – it's an important activity for the future of our environment. The City of Dallas recycling program has bins located at Prestonwood Elementary, Bowie Elementary, Campbell Green and Parkhill Jr. High.

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION (QCD)

If you are 70½ years old or older, you can take advantage of a simple way to benefit All Saints, satisfy all or a portion of your required minimum distribution (RMD) and receive tax benefits in return. You can give up to $100,000 from your Traditional IRA directly to a qualified charity such as All Saints without having to pay income taxes on the distribution. This popular gift option is commonly called the IRA charitable rollover, but you may also see it referred to as a qualified charitable distribution, or QCD.

INTERESTED IN MAKING A GIFT LATER?

If you would like to support All Saints Catholic Community but aren't sure you can fit in a gift in the near future, keep in mind one of the easiest and most flexible ways to give - a bequest. This gift in your will supports our mission after your lifetime, which means you retain use of your assets while you need them and you're free to change your plans at any time. Meet with your estate planning attorney to add this suggested wording to your will or living trust: "I, (name), of (address, city, state ZIP), give, devise and bequeath to All Saints Catholic Church at 5231 Meadowcreek Dr., Dallas, TX 75248, (written amount or percentage of the estate or description of property) for its unrestricted use and purpose."
